Judge John Blaine Continues Duties At Home Office

Severe abdominal pains and confinement to his couch have not discouraged Campbell Judge John D. Blaine from carrying on his judicial duties at his home on 25 So. Second Street.

Judge Blaine was first struck by the illness February 1 and has since continued his duties from his couch in his office at home. He is assisted in his labors by a part-time clerk who handles his bookkeeping and clerical details of the office. However, the main bulk of the judge's work is referred directly to him by a sign on his office door saying "the judge is ill, but will see you. Come in." Thus, anyone confronted with a need for professional judicial aid will not be turned away.

Trials are more of a problem for Judge Blaine, for they require that he sit up, a position which, at present, is extremely painful for him. "Trials are relatively few," he says, "a condtion very fortunate for me. I expect to continue working at my home for an indefinite period." he says, thus scotching local rumors that he might turn his work over to Attorney Martin Walsh.

Under the care of doctors at present, Judge Blaine reports that they are unable to determine the basic cause of his illness, although they are aware that the abdominal pains are caused by an inflamed peritoneum, which is the lining of the abdominal tract. "I am continuously being shot with needles," he says. A series of X-ray examinations do not reveal anything wrong.

Two Commercial Zones Planned To Serve Quito Area Sudivisions

Two resolutions of intention pertaining to commercial zoning in the Sorosis Farm Subdivision, Saratoga, were presented to the Santa Clara County Planning Commission at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

Roy Kosich's resolution referred to reclassification of property on the westerly side of Saratoga Avenue south of Quito Road, being part of Lot 21 of the subdivision. He will seek zoning change from an R-1: B-2 to a C-1 classification for the purpose of erecting a shopping center to serve new subdivisions in that area of Saratoga Avenue.

No definite purpose other than a general need for commercial zoning to serve the area was cited in the resolution of Fred and Maude Smith. They will ask a change to C-1-H from the present R-1:B-2 zoning on the westerly side of Paseo Presada and the westerly terminus of Paseo Lado, being part of Lot 1 of Sorosis Farm Subdivision, easterly of the Saratoga Avenue-Cox Road intersection. The "H" in the classification provides for architectural control by the planning commission to prevent unattractive or shabby development of the property, as well as future adverse architectural use.

First public hearing on the zoning requests has been set for July 5.

Boy Escapes Injury In Fall

Reports of a second child receiving serious injuries in a fall from a gymnastics bar at Campbell Grammar School were scotched today by District Superintendent William C. Henley. The boy who fell was back in school the next day, said Henley. "Apparently he just had the wind knocked out of him."

A nine year old pupil, Barbara Jo Hawkins, died Wednesday after suffering head injuries in a fall from one of the playground acting bars.

Kiwanians Honor CUHS Graduates With Awards

Campbell High School graduating seniors who will be the recipients of the Kiwanis Club's scholarship awards were honored at the club's meeting Tuesday, June 6. They were Julia Haggard, Bill Cockey, and George Blank.

The scholarship fund is under the chairmanship of L. E. Means, assisted by Laurance Hill and H. Jewell. Voluntary contributions by members collected throughout the school year are awarded on a basis of academic achievement. Each of this year's winners intends to continue his education at the college or university of his choice. Mr. Lowell J. Benson contributed a sum equal to the amount provided for one winner.

Ruth Johnson, former Campbell High School student and winner of an award last year, was also present at the meeting. She is now attending Stanford University and will receive an award this year in recognition of her outstanding academic record, achieved throughout her freshman year.

Under the direction of Frank Triena, the high school orchestra entertained members and guests with a musical program. Selections were Cherubim Song No. 7, Almighty God of Our Fathers, Low Ride the Chariot, Beautiful Savior, and The Lord's Prayer.

George Ingram, president of the graduating senior class, was introduced by C. P. Klassen and noted for his service to the school.

Other visitors were Bill Saylor, Alameda; Al Colombo, San Jose; Arch Keesling, Honolulu; and Vern Hardwick, Los Gatos.

Airability Survey Being Conducted By AFA Squadron

Santa Clara County's "Airability" will be gauged during the next few months in an extensive survey to be conducted by the San Jose Squadron of the Air Force Association, Lee W. Jones, Commander of the local group announced today.

Members of the Association here in Campbell have focused their interests on the air potential of our community and are taking steps to strengthen that potential. It is all part of a nation-wide program, designed to inventory and analyze the aviation assets and activities of communities throughout the nation, and initiate a plan of action for developing these interests.

"Airability," a term created by the Association, "stands for the ability of a community and the nation to meet Air Age requirements," according to Robert S. Johnson, young fighter ace and president of the organization.

Student Trio Wins Palo Alto Youth Concert Audition

Three Campbell High School sophomores were named among the winners in the auditions of musicians for the 1951 Youth Concert cians at Palo Alto, and a fourth Campbell youngster was given honorable mention.

The three, all 15 year olds, are a string trio composed of Joyce Klassen, Beverly Clawson and Mardel Sanders. They have been playing together since they were in the sixth grade. Joyce plays the piano, Beverly the violin, and Mardel the 'cello.

Arthur Sutton, seventh grader of Campbell Grammar School, and a pianist, was given honorable mention.

Multi-Purpose Building Started

Ground was broken Tuesday at Union Elementary School for construction of a multi-purpose classroom-auditorium building, Superintendent Kenneth A. McDonnell has announced. The contract was awarded E. A. Hathaway on his bid of $52,629.

The building, to be completed by fall, will provide three temporary classrooms, and will serve as a cafeteria, playroom during bad weather, and community auditorium.

The school board was forced to reject original bids on the building last month, due to lack of funds. Plans were revised to reduce the cost by eliminating a kindergarten unit, auditorium stage and other facilities.

When you've good news to tell...when—for any reason—you want to get in touch with anyone, anywhere... think first of fast, personal Long Distance. And, if you'll remember these tips, you'll get even more out of your Long Distance service:

You can call anywhere in the country for $2.50 plus tax or less (Daytime station rate for first three minutes)

Keep a list of the out-of-town numbers you call most ... and you'll find service even faster. If you plan your call in advance and take notes while you're talking, you can say as much in three minutes as in an average letter ... and you'll be able to express exactly what you mean through the personality of your own voice.

Use Long Distance—so personal, so fast, so inexpensive

Blood Bank Sets Collection Visit Here June 26

Campbell will have the opportunity to bring its blood bank credit up to a safe level when the mobile unit of the Regional Blood Center sets up a receiving center here Monday, June 26.

"Blood is badly needed," according to Campbell blood procurement chairman J. F. Levenberg. "Campbell fell down in its quota on the last visit. Let's make a date now. Your pint may save a life."

Appointments may be made now by phoning Mrs. Ethan Lanphear, Campbell 3655, or Mrs. N. J. Mahon, Campbell 4751.

A cordial note of felicitations from President Truman was received by Mr. and Mrs. George Stokeld Robson, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday. They were married June 6, 1900, at West Hartlepool, England, and came to Campbell in October, 1901, where they have since lived.

Their children are Mrs. George R. Stray of Chico, Dr. G Bernard Robson and Dr Philip G. Robson, both of San Francisco.

They and their families joined in the day's festivities, which concluded with a dinner party at Brookdale Lodge in Santa Cruz County .

leeway for individual factors in each case.

The adult probation officer recommends to the judge whether the prisoner should be given a term at the county jail farm, a prison term, or released on probation. The investigation made of the prisoner by the adult probation officer is the only report received by the officials of the jail or prison to which the criminal is remanded. A large percent of the cases are referred to his office, said Watson, but certain types are not. In these cases, the prison officials are without any record of the prisoners' past record and background.

A bill is pending in the State Legislature, he added, which provides that all cases must pass through the adult probation officers' hands.

In conclusion, Watson termed the Santa Clara County jail system "totally inadequate."

Members of the Teachers Association choir who sang for the club are Carol Eason, Patricia Hill, Lillian McCall, Ann Meridier, Angie Perry, Calvin Roll, Allene Seese, Thelma Wathen, Ben Ziegler, Jack Barrett, Irma Di Benedetto, Grace Fairbanks, Wilma Harris, Marcus Swengel, Bill Shuey, Margaret Enas, Patricia Freeman, EdaBelle Little, Jacqueline Parton and Ray Wilson.

President Forrest Reese presided at the meeting.

Catholic Sisters Ask Permit For Vasona Estate

Application for establishment of a parochial teachers' college at 40 Wildway in Vasona Heights, near Vasona Junction, has been made by Sisters of the Presentation to the Santa Clara County Planning Commission. Hearing on the application has been set for 2 p.m. June 21.

In their application, the Catholic order listed some $20,000 in proposed improvements to the property now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shaw Jr. Sale of the property to the order hinges on approval of the application by the planning board.

The estate, known as Sunnyridge, was built in 1928 for L. T. Lenox, San Jose banker. Ralph Wyckoff was the architect. Besides the main residence, the 10-acre estate has a gate cottage, gardens, terraces, a swimming pool, tennis and badminton courts and an orchard.

Burning Permits Required Under County Ordinance

Residents of the Campbell area who have been burning trash or garden refuse after hours or without burning permits were warned this week by Fire Chief Jack Scott that they are violating a county ordinance.

According to Scott, permits to burn trash, weeds or other matter, must be obtained, either from him or asistant chief Eugene Scott. Even with a permit, burning is permitted only during the hours from 6 a.m. to 12 noon, daily except Monday. Monday is reserved for washday. Those who have suitable barrels or large receptacles for burning trash need not obtain permits but the barrels must be covered with a mesh screen to prevent sparks and burning matter from being blown away, AND, the above burning hours must be observed. Burning is not permitted after 12 noon, or on Mondays.

Permits may be obtained from Chief Scott or Assistant Scott at 60 N. Central Avenue, after 5 p.m. on weekdays, or at any reasonable hour on Saturday or Sunday.

Those residents who have barbecue pits must observe regulations covering their use and construction.

TB Assn. Seals Arrive Early

Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association is rushing the Christmas Season with the early delivery at association headquarters, 211 Balbach, San Jose, last week, of 200,000 sheets of the 1950 Christmas seals.

The seal depicts a child—emphasizing the need for protecting children against tuberculosis by making certain that every adult in the community receives a chest X-ray in order to find the unknown spreaders of this disease.

Christmas Seals pay for the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association's year-round program of tuberculosis prevention through education and case-finding.

Association's mobile X-ray unit is open every Monday in San Jose next to the Civic Auditorium, between 10 a.m. and 3:45 p.m. It visits every community on a regular schedule and is available on request to industrial and other special groups

Last month 3,456 persons received chest X-rays on the Mobile unit. Program is endorsed by the health departments and medical society.

Hundreds Due For SJ State College 1950 Homecoming

Golden Grads of San Jose State College, alumni who graduated 50 or more years ago, will be among the hundreds of Spartans who will attend the 1950 Homecoming on the campus Saturday, June 17.

In addition to the Golden Grads, honorees of the day will be the classes of 1925 and 1940, graduates of 25 and 10 years ago, respectively.

The homecoming opens with an alumni golf tournament at Hillview club early in the morning. The annual meeting of Golden Grads is scheduled for 10 o'clock, and the main event of the day, the barbecue-luncheon, will begin at 12:30 p.m. At the luncheon new officers of the alumni association are to be introduced.

Theme for the day will be the proposed memorial chapel, for which ground-breaking ceremonies are scheduled during the morning. Alumni have contributed $12,000 of a $15,000 pledge toward the chapel, which is the college's tribute to Spartans who served in World War II.

'Jockey' Star In Ice Follies

"The Jockeys," portrayed by Paul and Yvon Leduc, present one of the most interesting production sequences in the current "Ice Follies of 1950," now playing nightly at San Francisco's Winterland.

Evening performances are scheduled at 8:30 o'clock, while Sunday matinees are scheduled to start June 25 at 2:15 o'clock.

The Leduc brothers, French-Canadians from Montreal, have a background of more than a decade of judo and acrobatics, and they employ many features of this training in their act.

While Paul was on tour with the "Ice Follies," Yvon was still in school in Montreal, and developing his talents in hand-to-hand balancing.

Tickets for the "Ice Follies" can be obtained at Winterland in San Francisco, or at Sherman Clay in San Francisco and Oakland, or by mail. To order tickets by mail, send check or money order, together with stamped, self-addressed envelope, to Winterland, Post and Steiner Streets, San Francisco. POPULAR RECORDS: The vocal allure of Doris Day is highlighted in her latest recording—I DIDN'T SLIP — I WASN'T PUSHED — I FELL (Columbia 38818). Tune is a smart ballad with sensitive background supplied by the Mellomen and George Wyle's Orchestra. Doris is equally captivating on the flip, a tender ballad called BEFORE I LOVED YOU. Two good tunes on one record is rather unusual these days.

HADDA'S BOOGIE (London 684) is a mellow boogie number with a heavy beat. Miss Brooks pounds the ivories in her usual fine style. Turn this one over and enjoy Hadda's sultry chirping as well as her 88-ing on the soothing oldie I HADN'T ANYONE TILL YOU.

The state of wedded bliss is applauded by Bing Crosby with some real old fashioned HOME COOKIN' (Decca 27019). Der Bingle is at his light and lilting best on this bright pop-corn opus from the flicker "Fancy Pants." Jud Conlon's Rhythmaires and the Perry Botkin combo add their talents to the fun.

Charlie Spivak's fat-toned trumpet shines forth on the W. C. Handy tune CARELESS LOVE (London 619). Some vocal touches are added by the Stardreamers but it is Charlie's trumpet that holds the spotlight throughout.

The rural romper WHY DON'T YOU LOVE ME? (MGM 10696) looks like it is sure to add to the growing list of hits turned out by Cowboy Hank Williams. This is a catchy number with snappy lyrics and easily singable tune.

The rare and magical qualities of music that is universal in its appeal, gay carefree music, is wrapped up in a neat little package called MUSIC OF FRANZ LEHAR (London LLP 8). Franz Lehar, himself, conducts the Zurich Tonhalle Orchestra in his own interpretations of his music. There are highlights from his operettas and his unforgettable waltzes all played with a brilliance and gaiety that will capture your heart.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS: HOW THE FIRE ENGINE GOT ITS SIREN (Capitol 30060) is a clever story with sound effects and a moral—when you hear a siren DO NOT try to cross a street. This is partcularly good for the small child since it will teach him to identify many common traffic sounds.

CLASSICAL RECORDS: Chas. Munch makes his long-awaited RCA Victor debut conducting the Boston Symphony Orchestra in a superb reading of BEETHOVEN: SEVENTH SYMPHONY (LM 1034). All the wonderfully vigorous and elastic rhythms, the sardonic humor and the sheer exuberance of the music are skillfully brought forth by Munch.

Beethoven wrote only nine symphonies but who among us would be willing to spare even one, for each of the nine symphonies are interestingly different in temperament and suggestion. Beethoven himself was particularly fond of his SEVENTH SYMPHONY and referred to it as one of his best efforts. Often called the "Dance Symphony," the Seventh is distinctly different from the preceding six. In his first six symphonies Beethoven based his work on the but in the Seventh he is more concerned with the development of rhythmic ideas and in this symphony everything seems to dance.

As an organist I have been very dissatisfied with organ recordings in general and with the recordings of E. Power Biggs in particular. I had the good fortune to attend a Master Class in Organ under Mr. Biggs and had the opportunity to hear him personally play most of the selections he has recorded. The recordings were such a far cry from the actual performance that I could not enjoy them at all.

Mr. Biggs latest recordings on the organ in Symphony Hall, Boston, have overcome most of the recording difficulties that have so hampered his work in the past. Here the organ sounds like it should and the delicacy of phrasing and the rhythmic structure that go into interpreting the organ music of Bach are clear and precise. BACH'S ROYAL INSTRUMENT Volume 1 (Columbia ML 4284) contains the Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C Major and the six Chorale Preludes of the Schubler Collection. It is in the Chorale Preludes with their intimacy and pictorial qualities that the true warmth and spiritual character of Bach is revealed. Charles Sanford Terry said—"Bach had the eye of a painter and the soul of a poet."
